

Montana Society of Public Accountants

Bylaw change request

As a society, we no longer hold an annual convention. We do, however, hold an annual meeting.

It is the request of the Bylaw committee to be allowed to change the language in the Bylaws document to read "Annual Meeting" instead of "Annual Convention".

This would bring the society into compliance with current practices.